NICHOLAS "NICKY" STURCKE

SOFTWARE ENGINEER

PROFILE

Hi! I'm Nicky, a passionate self-taught developer with over five years of experience building web solutions, automation tools, and community platforms. Starting at just 8 years of age, I enhanced my skills through freelancing and volunteering, leading impactful projects like creating a dashboard for automated rewards and managing technical infrastructure for a community of over 1M members. Bilingual in English and Spanish, I bring strong technical expertise and adaptability to global, collaborative environments. Currently on a gap year, I am focused on expanding fields, learning and delivering innovative solutions.
